Tempe Map

Figure 2. Negative Report- "Tempe's Road Nightmare: A Dangerous City to Drive In". Tempe, a city plagued by car crashes, has some alarming statistics to showcase. Rural Rd stands out as the absolute worst, tallying a shocking 4,437 incidents with 1,952 injuries. But it doesn't end there. Baseline Rd, Broadway Rd, Mcclintock Rd, Rural Rd, and University Dr collectively form the dreaded list of the top 5 worst places to drive in Tempe. And if you thought you could catch a break during the Fall season, think again. September, October, and November are the absolute worst months, racking up a staggering 11,780 incidents and causing 5,350 injuries. It's a bleak picture for anyone venturing onto the streets of Tempe.
